(ORC 955.22)
- (d) No dog shall be deemed a "dangerous dog" or "vicious dog" as stated herein unless and until the owner, keeper, harbinger, or handler shall have been provided the opportunity to contest, challenge, or otherwise appeal the determination that a dog is a "dangerous dog" or "vicious dog" in accordance with the following:
- (1) Notice shall be deemed given when such a notice has been personally served upon any owner, keeper, harbinger, or handler; when a written notice properly stamped and addressed to the registered owner of a dog is deposited into the mail, or when written notice is left in a reasonable location upon the property on which the dog was located. Such written notice may be given by a City official, public safety officer, or other person of governmental authority in the form of a preliminary notification that a dog has been classified as "dangerous" or "vicious," or a citation for failure to comply with relevant City ordinances or Ohio Revised Code provisions concerning dangerous or vicious dogs.
  - (2) Upon notice that a City official, public safety officer, or other person of governmental authority has made a preliminary determination that a dog is a dangerous or vicious dog, the owner, keeper, harbinger, or handler of such dog shall have ten (10) days to deliver written intent to appeal such classification to the Director of Public Safety or designee. Such notice must contain all of the following:

- A. A clear statement identifying the document as a Notice of Intent to appeal a classification of a dog as dangerous or vicious;
- B. Identification, by name and address, of the owner, keeper, harborer, or handler who is making the appeal (“the Appellant”);
- C. Reasonable identification of the dog in question;
- D. Identification of the notice or citation in which a classification as dangerous or vicious was made;
- E. Any relevant information, documents, statements, or other evidence which the person challenging the classification desires to have considered prior to making a final determination that a dog is a “dangerous dog” or “vicious dog;” and
- F. If the dog has been classified as “vicious” based upon subsection(a)(4)(A)(3) hereinabove, or upon Ohio Revised Code §955.11 (A)(4)(a)(iii), then the notice shall be accompanied by reasonable certification or other affirmation that the dog in question is not of the breed identified in subsection (a) (4) (C) herein.

If no written intent to appeal the classification is delivered within ten (10) days, such a right to appeal the classification of a dog as dangerous or vicious shall be deemed waived, and such classification shall become conclusive and final, and a City official, public safety officer, or court may therefore proceed accordingly in compliance with this ordinance.

- (3) Upon receiving written notice of intent to appeal a classification of dangerous or vicious, the Director of Public Safety or designee shall promptly, upon conducting an investigation and/or a hearing [if requested] shall issue a written determination of the appropriateness of the classification. This decision shall be final, and shall be served in person or by mail upon the Appellant.
  - (4) A finding by the Director of Public Safety or designee that a dog is not a “dangerous” or “vicious” dog as defined in subsections (a)(1) or (a)(4) hereinabove does not preclude a subsequent classification based on events occurring after the determination made in subsection (d) (3) hereinabove.
  - (5) Nothing in this section shall preclude the City from enforcing any other laws or ordinances pertaining to dogs as set forth in this Chapter, or in Chapter 955 of the Ohio Revised Code.
- (e) If a violation of subsection (b) hereof involves a dangerous dog, whoever violates that subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor of the fourth degree on a first offense and of a misdemeanor of the third degree on each subsequent offense. Additionally, the court may order the offender to personally supervise the dangerous dog that the offender owns, keeps, or harbors, to cause the dog to complete dog obedience training, or to do both, and the court may order the offender to obtain liability insurance pursuant to subsection (c) hereof. The court, in the alternative, may order the dangerous dog to be humanely destroyed by a licensed veterinarian, the Dog Warden, or the Humane Society.
- (f) If a violation of subsection (b) hereof involves a vicious dog, whoever violates that subsection is guilty of one of the following:
- (1) A misdemeanor of the first degree on a first offense. Additionally, the court may order the vicious dog to be humanely destroyed by a licensed veterinarian, the Dog Warden, or the Humane Society.
  - (2) A misdemeanor of the first degree if the dog causes injury other than killing or serious injury, to any person.
- (g) Whoever violates subsection (c) hereof is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. (ORC 955.99)
